Adventure

Must see

Travel the country from south to north and discover an impressive variety of extraordinary landscapes: gorges, canyons, lakes, forests and high summits are at the program of this Kyrgyz adventure.

During this trip, you'll be able to meet local families and participate in their daily life.

This is an ideal program for the spring and fall

Day 1-2. Arslanbob's waterfalls

- Osh
- 110km - 1h 40m
- Jalal-abad
- 85km - 1h 30m
- Arslanbob

Osh - Jalal-abad

- This morning, our Kyrgyz'What? team picks you up at your hotel. We leave for Jalal-Abad, the third biggest city in Kyrgyzstan. On the road, we'll visit the historical sight of Uzgen, where you'll be able to see three mausoleums and one minaret from the 11th century.

Jalal-abad - Arslanbob

- After driving on a dirt road, we finally reach the picturesque Uzbek village of Arslanbob. Nestled in the mountains at an altitude of 1600m, besides one of the world's largest walnut forests, this village, which looks like no other in Kyrgyzstan, is a paradise for hikers.

Day 1

- We explore this small village, where time seems to have stopped.
Our host family shows us some local cuisine: plov (rice with carrots and meat), mastava, or borsok (fried bread).

Day 2

- Today, we go for a hike in the walnut forest, where we'll be able to glance at two splendid waterfalls. We'll take our lunch in this relaxing and stunning environment.

Day 7. Horseback riding at Son Kul Lake

Kyzyl-Oi 📍
 🚗 140km - ⌚ 4h
 Son Kul lake 📍

Kyzyl-Oi - Son Kul lake

- We arrive on the shores of Son Kul Lake. This huge alpine lake is an important water reserve in Kyrgyzstan. Nestled in the celestial mountains, it is located at 3016 m (9895 ft) above sea level. Its crystal clear water changes colors depending on the weather, which can change every hour. The lake takes on blue, turquoise and sometimes even orange colors. It hosts nomadic shepherds and their herds in the warm months of summer.

- You can enjoy the day, relax, and discover the daily life of our host family. You might be lucky enough to attend the production of Kumys, the local mare milk, or see how shepherds gather their herds.

You can also go for a small horseback riding adventure near the lake after lunch.

- We continue to the village of Kochkor, famous for its local tourism development initiatives. We visit a women's association where they make felt rugs (sherdaks) and other handicraft.

Kochkor - Bokonbayevo

- We arrive at Bokonbayevo, small village on the south shore of Issyk Kul Lake.

This morning, we attend an eagle hunting demonstration. The Kyrgyz hunter, on his horse, will show you the impressive agility of his eagle, who will have to catch small preys like a rabbit.

Day 9

- We visit the superb Skazka Canyons, whose name translates as Fairy Tale Canyons in Kyrgyz language. Formed from erosion, the rocks tower over the Issyk Kul Lake and offer a great contrast in color. Let your imagination work to make out the shapes of the rocks.
- After dinner, we will get entertained by a group of musicians playing traditional Kyrgyz music.
